

2023 Annual Report on Forced Labour in Canadian Supply Chains

ETBO Tool & Die Inc.
May 2024

Financial Reporting Year:	January 1 – December 31, 2023
Headquartered & Located:	Ontario, Canada
Structure:	Corporation
Industry Sector:	Manufacturing: Automotive Parts & Equipment
Entity Categorization:	Canadian Business Presence & Meets Size-Related Thresholds

Prevention & Reduction of Risk that Forced or Child Labour is Used in the Production of Goods

In 2023, ETBO did not directly employ or use forced or child labour in its manufacturing processes. Revisions to our human resources procedure and a code of conduct policy were drafted to reflect our commitment to complying with provincial and federal human rights and employment standards. These will be implemented in 2024.

Structure, Activities & Supply Chain

ETBO Tool & Die produces goods in Canada, predominantly for the automotive industry, sells those goods in Canada and exports them to other nations. We also import raw materials and sub-components to be used in the manufacturing process. Our supply chain is largely located in North America, however, many items also originate from around the world. In many cases, however, suppliers of goods are determined and contracted for us directly by our customers. In these cases, ETBO does not have control over the selection or management of the supply base.

ETBO reports to our customers annually on conflict minerals in the supply chain, per the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (USA).

Policies & Due Diligence

In 2023, ETBO did not have policies or due diligence processes in place related to forced labour and/or child labour. ETBO has never knowingly engaged with suppliers who utilize or support forced labour or child labour.

Business and Supply Chain Risk, Assessment & Management

ETBO has not started the process of identifying supply chain risks associated with forced and child labour.

Measures to Remediate Forced & Child Labour

As ETBO has not identified forced or child labour risks in our supply chain, we have not taken any steps to remediate such risks.

Measures to Remediate Loss of Income

As ETBO has not taken any steps to remediate forced or child labour in its supply chain, we have not taken further steps to remediate the loss of income resulting from such steps.

Training

ETBO does not currently provide any training on forced or child labour.

Assessment of Effectiveness

In 2023, ETBO did not have any polices or procedures in place to assess the effectiveness of efforts to reduce or eliminate forced and child labour from our supply chains.
