Since 2020, Emergent has maintained a Combatting Trafficking in Persons (CTIP) Plan that applies to all company directors, officers, employees and agents of the company to perform (or recruit individuals to perform) U.S. Government contracts outside of the United States with an estimated value exceeding $500,000. It includes:

- Conducting reasonable, risk-based due diligence of third parties prior to contracting with them.

- Not knowingly doing business with subcontractors or agents who participate in human trafficking.
- Requiring contractors under covered contracts to certify compliance with U.S. Federal Acquisition Regulations (FAR) or agree to comply with our CTIP Plan.
- Requiring employees to promptly report trafficking allegations.

We've also maintained an International Business Compliance Policy since 2020, that:

- Prohibits employees and suppliers from engaging in human trafficking, child labour, or slavery in all jurisdictions in which we operate.
- States we will not engage in misleading practices related to recruitment or employment and will provide terms and conditions of employment in a language understood by the candidate.
- Ensures Emergent will not retaliate in any way against individuals who report an allegation of trafficking in good faith.

Lastly, we screen potential and existing suppliers against global government “do not use” lists through third-party tools to systematically verify suppliers are in good standing. The tool screens every 24-hours against more than 750 lists, many of which are specific to human rights violations, human trafficking, slavery/forced labour, and child labour.
