

Report

1. Introduction

This report, prepared pursuant to the Fighting Against Forced Labour and Child Labour in Supply Chains Act (Canada) (the “Act”), pertains to Gamma Wholesale Drugs Limited (“Gamma”).

Gamma hereby reports to the Minister of Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness on the steps taken during their previous financial year ended February 24, 2024 to prevent and reduce the risk that forced labour or child labour is used at any step of the production of goods imported into Canada thereby.

2. Structures, Activities and Supply chains

a. Structure

Gamma is incorporated in British Columbia Canada.

Activities

Gamma operates as a distributor to retailers of pharmaceuticals manufactured by third parties.

Number of Employees: 1

Location of Employees: All within British Columbia

Staff Remuneration: All employees are paid minimum wage or higher.

b. Supply Chain

Gamma sources pharmaceutical products from various third party manufacturers, which it sells to retailers.

Number of direct suppliers: 71

Main types of goods and services procured: pharmaceutical products.

Nature of contractual arrangements with suppliers: Generally long term contracts with some short term arrangements.

3. Company policies and due diligence Processes

Gamma acknowledges the importance of forced labor and modern slavery. While formal policies are not yet in place, Gamma is actively considering implementing procedures in place for the future.

4. Identifying Forced Labour and Child Labour Risks

While Gamma recognizes the importance of forced labour and child labour, we do not currently have procedures in place to identify these risks. Gamma will be evaluating areas such as health and safety, environmental management, child labour and young workers, working hours and labour practices.

5. Remediation, Training and Effectiveness

Gamma does not offer training or remediation on modern slavery.

6. Approval and Attestation

In accordance with the requirements of the Act, and in particular section 11 thereof, I attest that I have reviewed the information contained in the report for the entity or entities listed above. Based on my knowledge, and having exercised reasonable diligence, I attest that the information in the report is true, accurate and complete in all material respects for the purposes of the Act, for the reporting year listed above.

I make the above attestation in my capacity as a director of the board of Gamma Wholesale Drugs Limited for and on behalf of the board of Gamma Wholesale Drugs Limited.

Kurt Louie

Director

GAMMA WHOLESALE DRUGS LIMITED