2. Please provide additional information describing the steps taken (if applicable) (1,500 character limit).

We advocate for the highest levels of ethical and responsible conduct within the operations of our suppliers. LP suppliers are required to adhere to the LP Supplier Code of Conduct, which lays out, among other things, our expectations across four areas: labor; safety, environment and quality; ethics; and management systems.

Prior to establishing a business relationship, we thoroughly vet suppliers for potential violations of our Supplier Code of Conduct and maintain ongoing and regular communication with existing suppliers to ensure continued compliance. Suppliers are also expected to establish and maintain processes and procedures to adhere to our Supplier Code of Conduct.

According to our Supplier Code of Conduct, suppliers will not utilize or source products or services from entities associated with forced, bonded, indentured, involuntary, or exploitative prisons, trafficked, or slave labor. Involuntary labor includes transporting, harboring, recruiting, transferring, receiving, or employing persons by means of threat, force, coercion, abduction, or fraud for labor or services. All work must be voluntary, and workers shall be free to terminate their employment at any time. There shall be no unreasonable restrictions on entering, exiting, or moving within company-provided facilities. Suppliers will take reasonable efforts to ensure that their own suppliers comply with this requirement.
