All vendors producing import, or domestic production for Northern Reflections receive our Global Sourcing Manual which includes a section on Employment Standards Section 1, outlining adherence to Child and Forced Labour. In addition, 3rd party audits are done yearly which include report card ratings. If rating regarding child labour and forced labour does not meet the gold or "A" grading, the contract with that factory is terminated. All import vendors (Owner / President) sign off on Northern Reflections Certificate of Compliance letter which includes any subcontractors in the manufacturing of our product. Sign off is by purchase order by shipment into Canada confirming adherence to our Global Sourcing Guidelines. We are currently in the process of expanding the Compliance certificate to all our Canadian vendors manufacturing domestic and offshore production
