Fighting Against Forced Labour and Child Labour in Supply Chains Act (the “Act”)

Bill S-211 Report

1. Introduction

It is with great pride and a deep sense of responsibility that we present this report detailing our commitment and efforts to prevent forced labor within our supply chain. At Viega LLC, we recognize the gravity of the global challenge posed by forced labor and its impact on human rights. Our commitment to ethical business practices extends beyond mere compliance—it is a cornerstone of our identity.

In this report, we will share the comprehensive measures we have implemented to identify, assess, and mitigate the risk of forced labor in our supply chain. By embracing transparency, accountability, and collaboration, we aim to set a standard for responsible business conduct that goes beyond mere compliance with regulations. Our journey towards contributing to the eradication of forced labor is not just a corporate obligation but a moral imperative that we embrace wholeheartedly.

As you delve into the pages of this report, we invite you to join us on this journey of continuous improvement and ethical leadership. Together, we can create a supply chain ecosystem that stands as a beacon of fairness, dignity, and respect for all. Thank you for your interest in our commitment to preventing forced labor, and we look forward to your engagement and support in this critical endeavor.

2. Structure

The legal structure of Viega LLC (“Viega NA”) is a limited liability company formed under the laws of the State of Delaware, United States of America, and is part of the Viega Group of companies ultimately a subsidiary of Viega GmbH & Co. KG (“Viega Global”). Viega Global is a German partnership operating mainly in Europe, Asia, and Oceania. Viega NA operates independently in North America and is the only global entity importing products into Canada.

The organizational structure of Viega NA consists of several departments that play a role in managing and supporting the company’s supply chain, but ultimately the two departments with the most direct responsibility are Supply Chain and Legal. Within the Supply Chain department, the Procurement team is responsible for executing the processes that assess, onboard, and audit the company’s suppliers and vendors, including for human rights and forced labor activities. Within the Legal department, the Compliance team is responsible for implementation, training, and internal audit of company policies and directives meant to comply with the various legal and overall ethical obligations applicable to the company’s business operations. Both departments report directly to the Chief Executive Officer of Viega NA, allowing the teams to collaborate efficiently and effectively to achieve the company's goals and to drive its overall success.

The basis for the company's compliance efforts is centered around the "Viega Values" of achievement, empowerment, respect, responsibility, and trust, as well as setting clear goals necessary to promote a culture of compliance. Compliance then becomes the basis for values-oriented behavior and behavior that does not comply with the law is not tolerated. The company's values are then aligned with its purpose: "Installing the lifelines for the buildings of tomorrow," the company can reliably shape the future and is always committed to the highest quality.

Viega NA has approximately 1,250 employees, 23 of which reside in Canada. If you include Viega Global, the total employee count is approximately 5,600.

Viega NA is a member of the CTPAT program in affiliation with the United States Customs and Border Patrol.

3. Supply Chain Overview

Viega NA imports products and materials from a total of 25 countries in Europe, Asia, and Oceania. Viega NA imports approximately US$55M of goods from the United States into Canada. Of all Viega NA products, 19% are made or assembled in the United States, with 78% being manufactured and packaged in Germany and the remaining balance from other Europe, Asia, and Oceania.

4. Policies and Due Diligence

For the 2024 calendar year, Viega NA has worked in conjunction with Viega Global to leverage the global policies and directives within the company's Code of Conduct and Supplier Compliance Code. In addition, Viega NA has implemented a regional Supplier Code of Conduct and continues to update its Corporate Compliance Manual to address the company's growth and changing priorities with respect to compliance including forced and child labor. While leveraging the Viega Global policies and processes is already in place for a majority of the Viega NA supply chain that is imported from Viega Global, efforts to implement a more robust regional processes around supplier onboarding, annual supplier risk assessments, and obligating suppliers to comply with the Viega NA Supplier Code of Conduct through its contractual templates continue. Approximately 78% of Viega NA products are manufactured by Viega Global and imported under intercompany agreements, and therefore are subject to more robust policies and processes with respect to supply chain due diligence.

5. Risks in Supply Chain

No risks identified in the regional supply chain, therefore no action taken in 2024.

6. Remediation Measures

No remediation required because no risks were identified in 2024.

7. Training

Various trainings have taken place through the course of 2024, including general supply chain security training, specialized supply chain training for Procurement and Logistics, which included forced labor.

8. Effectiveness Assessment

As a member of US Customs CTPAT, Viega NA regularly audits transactions and screens suppliers against restricted party lists, including forced labor offenders.

9. Closing Statement

While Viega NA is proud of the strides it has made, particularly with respect to our global supply chain, we acknowledge that eradicating forced labor is an ongoing effort. Further, we recognize that the implementation of robust policies, processes, and structure are necessary in order to achieve our goals in this area. We remain committed to this cause and will continue to work tirelessly to uphold the dignity and rights of all workers throughout our supply chain.

As detailed in this report, we have been able to leverage a comprehensive global supplier vetting processes, ongoing audits, and partnerships with credible third-party organizations to ensure compliance with internationally recognized labor standards. Furthermore, we recognize the importance of transparency and accountability, which is why we are dedicated to openly sharing our progress and challenges in combating forced labor across all portions of our business operations.
