Alliance Fabricating Ltd. employs nearly 160 individuals and operates in a global market and distributing products to several countries but with key markets located within North America.

Policies and Commitments

Alliance Fabricating Ltd. is committed to upholding human rights and ensuring that our global supply chain is free from forced and child labour. We adhere to a strict zero-tolerance policy regarding modern slavery. Our Corporate Social Responsibility and Ethics policies reflect our commitment to international human rights standards and are underpinned by compliance with the OECD Due Diligence Guidance for Responsible Supply Chains of Minerals from Conflict-Affected and High-Risk Areas, and the International Labour Organization's Articles 6 and 7.

Due Diligence and Risk Management

We conduct thorough due diligence to identify and assess risks related to forced and child labour across our operations and supply chain. This includes regular audits of our direct and indirect suppliers, particularly those involved in the procurement of raw or produced materials. Our Supplier assessment process completed for all suppliers, outlines specific requirements to uphold our standards against forced and child labour.

Effectiveness and Training

The effectiveness of our policies and procedures is monitored through annual self-audits completed by suppliers, mandatory training sessions for all employees, and regular policy reviews conducted by senior management. These processes ensure ongoing compliance and help foster a culture of ethical business practice across all levels of the company.

Incident Management and Remediation Strategies

While no incidents of forced or child labour were reported in the current fiscal year, Alliance maintains robust incident management and remediation strategies to address potential violations immediately. Documentation supporting all due diligence activities, audits, and training programs is available upon request and is subject to independent verification to ensure accuracy and integrity.

Annual Review and Continuous Improvement

Our commitment to human rights and the elimination of forced and child labour is an ongoing process. We continually seek to improve our practices and engage with external stakeholders to enhance the transparency and effectiveness of our efforts. This statement, approved by the Executives of Alliance Fabricating Ltd. and signed by our President, reflects our unwavering dedication to ethical business practices and compliance with all applicable laws.
